Their Lavish Parties

Money is no object when it comes to these kids' big days

Clowns, petting zoos, bouncy castles and $500 goody bags? Oh, my! "$100,000 is not an unheard of amount to spend at all," The Party Goddess' Marley Majcher, who has pulled together fetes for Britney Spears and Kelly Rutherford, tells Us of their over-the-top kiddie parties. Madonna's son Rocco rang in his 9th birthday at a Prague castle done up as a kids' disco, followed by fireworks. Animal-crazy Kingston Rossdale had a petting zoo for his big day. And Jennifer Lopez had valet parking — and a margarita machine — for guests Nicole Richie and Joel Madden at her twins' 1st B-day!
